Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 10th inst.
I beg to inform you that we have done all we could to find a 'Zimmerman'. The steward I had showed me there was only one of the family on board but I did not say which, so I told the 3rd class steward to find him or Zimmerman. Nearly every day I inquired if the passenger had been found. The steward called out the name on deck, went in the room, but always failed to locate the passenger.

I suppose the girl did not answer her name fearing some money would be collected from her or for some other stupid apprehension.
I did not scratch off the names of the 2 children until we were near port and obliged to finish the lists.

Yours truly

J. Caparin
